

Christmas Talks

Christmas in Ontario & Talking Turkey

In 2004, Cheryl MacDonald's book Christmas in Ontario was published as part of the AMAZING STORIES series. The book also forms part of Christmas in Canada, a compilation of five regional Christmas books, for which Cheryl wrote the introduction.

Christmas in Ontario continues to sell strongly, no matter what the time of year. If you are planning a special Christmas celebration ... or even Christmas in July, consider one of two talks based on the book.

#1 - Christmas in Ontario - heartwarming legends, tales and traditions, including the first Canadian Christmas carol, Christmas trees and decorations, holiday food and drink, Santa Claus and the Christmas spirit.

#2 - Talking Turkey - a somewhat humorous look at the bird that is the focus of the traditional Christmas feast. Did you know that if Benjamin Franklin had had his way, the turkey, not the eagle, would have been the avian symbol of the United States?

Both talks run about 45-60 minutes, with ample time for questions and discussion.

For further information, please contact Cheryl MacDonald 905-776-2406 • heronwood@execulink.com
www.heronwoodent.ca